Law360 Competition Editorial Advisory Board

Law360, New York (March 10, 2015, 4:54 PM ET) -- Law360 is pleased to announce the formation of its 2015 Competition editorial advisory board.

The purpose of the editorial advisory board is to get feedback on Law360's coverage and to gain insight from experts in the field on how best to shape future coverage.

The members of the 2015 Competition Law360 editorial advisory board are:

Greg Asciolla, Labaton Sucharow LLP

Gregory Asciolla is co-chair of Labaton Sucharow's antitrust and competition litigation practice. He represents businesses, municipalities, and public pension and health and welfare funds in complex antitrust and commodities class actions. He currently represents clients in numerous global antitrust matters, particularly in the financial and health care services industries. He is the chairman of the N.Y. State Bar Association's Horizontal Restraints Committee and co-chair of the NYCLA's Antitrust Committee.

Charles H. Critchlow, Baker & McKenzie LLP

Charles Critchlow is a partner in Baker & McKenzie's New York office specializing in international competition matters. He has handled landmark export trade exemption cases in the U.S., India, South Africa and Brazil, foreign sovereign compulsion and class action litigation, and advised on a broad array of joint venture questions in multiple contexts.

Eric Grannon, White & Case

Eric Grannon is a partner at White & Case, where he helps clients with antitrust matters, including civil and criminal defense as well as counseling for mergers and acquisitions and settlements of pharmaceutical patent litigation. He returned to White & Case after serving as counsel to the assistant attorney general in charge of the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Vanessa G Jacobsen, Eimer Stahl LLP

Vanessa Jacobsen is a partner at Eimer Stahl LLP and co-chairs the firm's Antitrust Group. She has experience in a wide variety of commercial litigation and arbitration matters, with a particular focus on antitrust litigation, class action defense and agricultural cooperative issues.

Richard Koffman, Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC

Richard Koffman is co-Chair of the Antitrust Practice Group at Cohen Milstein – a Law360 Competition Practice Group of the Year for 2014. An alumnus of DOJ's Antitrust Division, he is co-lead counsel for plaintiffs in several prominent antitrust class actions, and also represents individual clients in antitrust matters.

Stephen D. Libowsky, Dentons US LLP

Stephen Libowsky is a partner at Dentons and chairs the US antitrust practice. He counsels and litigates antitrust matters in a wide range of industries in grand jury and internal investigations, M&A, joint ventures, competitor relationships, and distribution and unfair competition matters. He is frequently honored for his pro bono work and is recognized by Chambers USA and others for antitrust.

Ethan Litwin, Hughes Hubbard & Reed

Ethan Litwin, co-chair of Hughes Hubbard's antitrust group, has extensive experience defending companies and individuals in international cartel investigations and associated class action litigations. In the transactional setting, he has successfully guided companies through the international merger control process in more than 35 jurisdictions worldwide.

Scott Martin, Greenberg Traurig LLP

Scott Martin is a shareholder in the litigation department of Greenberg Traurig's New York office and a frequent speaker and writer on antitrust topics. His practice has spanned the landscape of competition-related claims — private and regulatory actions, competitor as well as consumer class actions, collective and unilateral conduct matters, and plaintiff and defense representations.

Barak Orbach, University of Arizona

Barak Orbach is a professor of law and the director of the Business Law Program at the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law and an elected member of the American Law Institute. Orbach is a leading scholar of antitrust and regulation. He has published numerous works, frequently lectures on topics in antitrust and regulation, and advises on broad issues in these areas.

William H. Rooney, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP

William H. Rooney is a partner of Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP and Chair of Willkie's U.S. Antitrust Practice Group. He handles mergers, investigations, litigations, and counseling in U.S. and cross-border matters. Rooney is a former Chair of the New York State Bar Association Antitrust Section (2012) and an alumnus of Oxford, Yale Law School, and Notre Dame.

Whitney Street, Block & Leviton LLP

Whitney Street, a partner at Block & Leviton, chairs the firm's antitrust department. She focuses her practice on antitrust class action litigation and, most recently, was appointed co-lead counsel for indirect purchasers in the drywall antitrust litigation. Additionally, she is currently pursuing claims for anti-competitive conduct in the pharmaceutical industry.

Darren S. Tucker, Morgan Lewis & Bockius LLP

Darren Tucker is a partner at Morgan Lewis in Washington and is the deputy practice chair of the firm's antitrust group. Darren has represented clients in complex government investigations and litigation for over 15 years, with a focus on the technology and pharmaceutical sectors. He previously served as an attorney adviser at the Federal Trade Commission.

Peggy Wedgworth, Milberg LLP

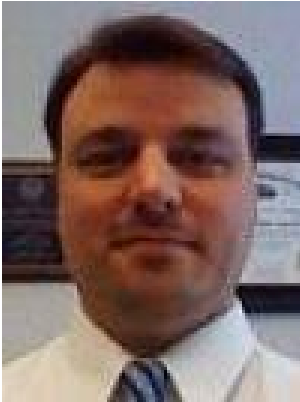

Peggy Wedgworth is a partner in Milberg's New York office whose practice focuses on antitrust and competition litigation on behalf of plaintiffs. She represents businesses, public pension funds and consumers in complex antitrust, consumer and commodities class actions. Currently, Ms. Wedgworth is representing clients in several global antitrust matters involving alleged price-fixing and other anti-competitive practices. She is a member of the Antitrust Committees of both the American Bar Association and the New York State Bar Association.

Michael Weiner, Dechert LLP

Michael L. Weiner, co-chair of Dechert's antitrust/competition group, provides strategic advice, resolves government merger and conduct investigations, and effectively litigates for clients with antitrust issues in a broad range of industries.

Timothy A Westrick, Vitamix Corp.

Timothy A. Westrick is corporate counsel with the Vitamix Corp. His former roles include vice president with JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s Global Financial Crimes Compliance group, nearly 10 years as a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice's Antitrust Division, and prior to that he served as a state court prosecuting attorney. His experience includes investigation, prosecution and trial litigation, and compliance counseling in domestic and international white collar and corporate practice areas, including criminal antitrust and cartel work, Foreign Corrupt Practices Act cases, public corruption, internal investigations and anti-money laundering cases.
